Erin Sander Design is a full-service interior design firm focused on designing properties from the ground up. Erin Sander and her team work alongside some of the city's most talented architects and builders to create homes for their clients that are both beautifully designed and thoughtfully planned. Sander's designs have a purposeful balance through layers of texture and contrasted materials, and the environments she creates offer an uplifting palette, whether she is designing a lake house reminiscent of those on the Cape or a Dallas residence inspired by a New York City loft.

Sander and her team guide clients through the process of refining architectural plans, bringing each space to life through detailed elevation drawings and finish selection. Above, all, the firm holds a deep appreciation and gratitude for clients
