The annual Dallas PaperCity Design Awards with Dallas Design District and Dunhill Partners elicited 210 outstanding entries in 16 categories, with more than 2,000 project images downloaded into digital libraries for our judges — designers Vicente Wolf, Victoria Hagan, Alexa Hampton, and architect Lauren Rottet.

We present the winning projects here, and in the January 2018 issue of PaperCity magazine.

The awards celebration kicked off Texas Design Week Dallas on Wednesday night. The evening began with VIP cocktails at George Cameron Nash showroom, hosted by George Nash. The awards presentation followed in the beautiful Level Two event space at Dallas Design District, designed by Todd Events, with awards presented by Dunhill Partners' Bill Hutchinson, PaperCity editor-in-chief Holly Moore, and author Carl Dellatore, in from New York. The winners were presented with stunning Christofle silver trays. The celebration continued at the after-party, with DJ Blake Ward, Duchman Family Winery wine and Tito's Handmade Vodka cocktails, bites by Lombardi's Catering ... and the final game in the World Series on the big screen.

Watch for the January 2018 issue of PaperCity magazine for more on the winning projects. To attend Texas Design Week Dallas, which runs through Friday, November 3, go to texasdesignweek.com.
